ABOUT

Jessica accepts briefs in all areas of law in both trial and appellate matters.

Prior to being called to the Bar, Jessica spent over a decade practising as a solicitor in Australia, France, the United Kingdom, and Singapore. This included roles as Counsel at a leading international law firm and Senior Federal Prosecutor for the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions.

During that time, she gained extensive experience in complex commercial litigation before superior courts, international investor-state and commercial arbitration, public law, and white-collar crime.

Jessica combines rigorous legal analysis with clear and effective communication.
